ABOUT HONU HONI SURF CAMP

Founded in 2019, Honu Honi Surf Camp is focused on creating quality adult surf experiences and education, centred on building confidence, skill, and enjoyment in the water.

We believe deeply in the power of surfing to alter peoples moods, find connection within themselves and with community, develop deeper empathy for others and the environment, and to provide many physical and mental health benefits for a more enjoyable way of life.

We want to share our knowledge and passion with any person who wishes to learn.

ABOUT YOUR INSTRUCTOR

Becks is the owner of Honu Honi Surf Camp, and has worked as an instructor at the largest surf camps and surf schools in Australia, as well as surf camps in Indonesia, South Africa, and France.

She has worked as a surf instructor since 2015 and over the years has trained many senior and assistant surf instructors for some of Australia's largest surf schools. She has an acute understanding of the expectations, logistics, and operations of different schools, as well as what is best practice in surf instructing.

Outside of surfing, Becks is also a qualified yoga teacher, and loves spending time adventuring around outside, whether it be waterfalls, beaches, or forests.
